Subject: RE: NASCO and Corridors of the Future

World Net Daily is the internet publication that started all of the conspiracy theories - That ANSCO is secretly building a new, giant NAFTA Superhighway that will split the country in half, that we are printing new Amero currency to replace the dollar, peso and Canadian dollar, that we are eliminating international borders to form a North American Union, that Trans Texas Corridor is the first leg of the big giant highway, that we are bringing in goods without security checks from Mexico into Kansas City, that there will be sovereign Mexican territory in the center of the Heartland. All of the stuff Boyda, Kaptor, have said. All of the media craziness that surrounds NASCO started with this guy. He is invited to CNN, and MANY other major news stations and radio to speak. He has a very committed, vocal following that believes everything he says. They contact Congress and the White House all of the time.

Jim ray's letter will need to specifically address some of this stuff. It can't be a generic letter. It will have to reinforce certain things. I am glad we have a meeting with him. His letter will need to be "on the record". I will need to give it to the media, at times.

Although WND is not a legitimate source of information, we need to take this very seriously because Jerome Corsi gets on the legitimate news stations and gets air time.

Thanks,

Tiffany

Jim has promised to do this - I just sent him another email indicating increased urgency due to a pending negative article - what is World Net Daily? We are also meeting with Jim personally on Wednesday afternoon

See below. We really need something from Jim Ray. This is unbelievable. Please help ASAP. I am not sure we are responding at all, but this article will elicit a lot of fall out press, and I / NASCO will have to respond if legitimate media contacts us. I will need Jim Ray to go on the record to support NASCO. The conspiracy theorists do not believe me. It is not enough for me to deny their accusations. I will need third party validation and it needs to come from USDOT - someone directly involved in CFP. Jim Ray would be great or Secretary Peters.

Thanks,

Tiffany

World Net Daily is going to write a piece about NASCO not being selected as a finalist in the Corridors of the Future. We are being told that the Corridors of the Future is focused on highways that relieve intra-city congestion and that your not being selected is further proof that you are supporting NAFTA superhighway vision despite your frequent denials.

You are invited to comment for print on the story. We can call you and record your comments. If you want to respond, we would prefer your comments in writing.

Thank you
