Here is a group we monitor but don't actively participate in. Do you have an interest in us upping our interest level in the Canadian border activities.

Greetings!

We just wanted to send out a reminder on the upcoming TBWG meeting. If you haven't booked your hotel room, please do it before COB today. After today the rooms are no longer held under the price indicated in earlier messages. The hotel information is listed below. Also if you are planning on attending, please complete the attached registration form (please send to Jennifer Zukowski) if you haven't already done so. The copy of the latest agenda and possible evening activities is also attached.

We are expecting a great meeting and look forward to seeing everybody in
