Thank you for registering for the NASCO Conference 2007: Moving North America Forward. We are looking forward to welcoming you to Fort Worth , Texas . We have outlined here some information to help you prepare for the conference. =0A =0AMain Conference Registration:=0AOur records indicate that you= will be checking in with us at the conference hotel. Our main conference = registration / information desk will be located at the Renaissance Worthing= ton Hotel. When you check in at registration, you will receive a name badg= e which will serve as your ticket to all conference activities, including a= ll conference program sessions, special events, and meals. The registration= desk will be open during the following times and locations:=0A=B7 = Tuesday, 29 May 2007, 4:30 to 7:30 p.m., Main Lobby=0A=B7 Wednesday= , 30 May 2007, 8:30 am to 10:00 pm, Post Oak Foyer=0A =0AWednesday, 30 May = 2007 -- Alliance Day at Texas Motor Speedway :=0AOn Wednesday our conferenc= e=92s opening luncheon and afternoon program sessions will be held at the S= peedway Club at Texas Motor Speedway. =0A =0AMotor coaches will leave the = Renaissance Worthington Hotel for the trip to Texas Motor Speedway beginnin= g at 10:00 am. To ensure that you do not miss out on the opening luncheon = or first two program panels, please schedule your travel to allow you to ar= rive at the hotel by 9:00 a.m. on Wednesday. That should allow you time to= check-in to the hotel and check in with our conference registration desk. = A bus loop between the hotel and Speedway will continue to run through 3:0= 0 pm. Due to distance and possible traffic congestion it will probably tak= e about an hour for the bus to make each return to the hotel.=0A =0AIf you = flight arrives after 9:00 am on Wednesday, please consider going directly t= o Texas Motor Speedway. Directions to the Speedway will be listed at the e= nd of this message. If for any reason you decide to go directly to Texas Motor Speedway on Wednesday without first checking in at the hotel, please let us know. That will allow us to take your name badge and conference materials to that location for check-in. Cowboys & Barbecue at the Ranch: On Wednesday evening you are invited to the private ranch of our Secretary of State, Roger Williams, to enjoy an evening of ranch-style entertainment. Motor coaches will depart from the hotel for the ranch at 6:00 p.m., and we strongly encourage that you plan to ride with us. If you plan to drive over, please note: private cars will not be allowed to park at the ranch. Instead, private vehicles will be directed to Squaw Creek Backside, located about 1.3 miles away at 130 Trinity Meadows Drive in Willow Park. Limited shuttle service will be provided from this location to the ranch. The ranch festivities are scheduled to begin at 7:00-ish. If you plan to drive, directions are included at the end of this message. Air and Ground Transportation: The Renaissance Worthington Hotel is 17.5 miles from the Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport. Estimated taxi fare is $52. The Fort Worth Accessibility flier contains taxi and shuttle information. Yellow Checker Shuttle offers an online coupon for discounted service. Download and print the coupon for a $2 discount, or receive a $6 discount by booking and paying online. If you need help while at the airport, look for the DFW Airport Ambassadors. These volunteers are on hand to assist travelers, and may be identified wearing a dark green jacket and vest. We have alerted them that people will be arriving for the NASCO Conference 96 they will be happy to assist you. Recommended Attire: For most of the conference we recommend business attire. On Wednesday and Friday evenings our program includes outdoor and western-themed activities. For these we recommend western or casual attire. Texas Motor Speedway Driving Directions: Directions from DFW Airport: Travel west on State Highway 114. Pass through the intersection with Interstate 35W. Texas Motor Speedway will be on your right. Follow the NASCO signs to The Speedway Club. Conference will be held on the 9th Floor of The Speedway Club. Directions from Downtown Fort Worth: Travel north on Interstate 35W. Take Exit 70 for State Highway 114. Turn left onto SH 114 and travel under the highway. Texas Motor Speedway will be on your right. Follow the NASCO signs to The Speedway Club. Conference will
