Please call me any time to discuss any of our NASCO initiatives. I want you to know that you are not behind on anything. Only in the past two weeks has information developed related to our NAFTRACS initiative and we are finally meeting on the Savi / NASCO agreement today. It has been a busy month due to the preparation for the conference. There really has not been much information to report until now. I know Andy Horosko had expressed the feeling of being "left out" and he mentioned to me that you guys feel the same. Please call me any time to discuss anything. After the meetings today and tomorrow, I will work on calling everyone to give them updates. We have been trying to get these meetings of today and tomorrow scheduled for about three months, and were hoping to have them done before the conference so we would have something to report. It just didn't happen due to scheduling conflicts. But, once I have information to report, I will contact each of the NASCO Board members.

If you have questions regarding background of NASCO or other initiatives, you can call me any time. We have a bit more room to breathe now that the conference is over.

Thanks, and I hope you enjoyed your time in Fort Worth. I wish I could have had more time to speak with you both. I was running myself ragged.

Tiffany
