We are still on track for the September 7th deadline. We should have the last bit of information requested submitted by close of business today. If we are pushed beyond the deadline, I have learned that none of our funding is subject to government take downs, so the amount of our funding will remain the same. This is good news. But, the better news is that it looks like we have a good shot at getting this finished next week, on the 7th.

Call me with any questions.

I will be out of the office tomorrow, and in Laredo next Tuesday and then to San Antonio. So, I will see most of you next week!

Rider, will you please contact me today with an update on the 501C4 status? We need to make sure we are ready to go the week of the 10th....
